districts.

SENATOR HARTNETT: There will be no...it's a technical change to allow them to have...offer at the high school level, as I understand your opening, grade six? Is that part of a...

SENATOR McDONALD: Yes, that's all it does.

SENATOR HARTNETT: ...that's the middle school concept, rather than the junior high concept?

SENATOR McDONALD: Just allows them to add grade six to that mix.

SENATOR HARTNETT: But it will not...?

SENATOR McDONALD: No.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Do you know what the history of Class VI districts were? Because I got a...do you know what the history was, how they started and why? Do you know?

SENATOR McDONALD: You know, I'm not that familiar with the districts, the classes. Maybe someone else that knows a little bit more about the history of Class VI's might be able to answer that question.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah.

SENATOR McDONALD: Maybe Senator Maxwell (inaudible).

SENATOR HARTNETT: My concern was that there may be...this bill would allow, you know, formation of additional Class VI districts. But you say no, so I...

SENATOR McDONALD: No, it doesn't.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah. I'm satisfied.

SENATOR McDONALD: (Inaudible).
